

Third Party Administrator (TPA) an organization that processes insurance claims or certain aspects of employee benefit plans for a separate entity.

Saturday Night Live (SNL) an organization that causes laughter, in this case used to bring humor to a topic in need.

Consumer Driven Healthcare Plan (CDHP) a health insurance package that allows employers to provide health insurance benefits to their employees with a savings and giving more control of costs to the employee.